

Living the Jewish Year: The Jewish Holidays

November 12-14, 2010

Cambridge, Massachusetts

Sponsored by

Sessions held at 765 Concord Avenue Cambridge, MA 02138

This seminar was made possible by generous contributions from the members of Kahal B'raira.

The Jewish year is time within time – it cycles through the secular calendar and the seasons, the lunar month and the solar year, with its own rhythms, peaks and valleys. Join us for one year in Jewish life in just one weekend– the origins, development and contemporary celebration of the Jewish holidays.
